Resource Information

To Share with your Advisees

- Did the student review the course catalog for information on courses for their major?

- Did the student consult his advising worksheet for course needs?

- Did the students browse potential courses that are being offered?

- Did the student consult the GLE reports to find GLE course offerings? Remind the student to pay attention to the prefix rules for the various LOs so that they take the needed GLE course.

- Did the student consider how they can set up their schedule for academic success?
  - Days and timing of classes
  - Combination of courses that will be challenging and less challenging
  - Diverse courses that will use different skill sets
  - Utilizing the Rindge Course schedule time sheet